Serial No.

1) I request I may be granted 6 (Six) months Combined leave, which is at my Credit, from a date Convenient to Govt. I reach superannuation on 17.4.50, Completing 31 Years & 2 months service on that date. The Record of this whole service is known to this office under whom I had this privilege to serve.

2) Strictly, I should have applied earlier, but this overrush & misfortune of this work in this Br during this past year held me back. The Dt Secy is fervently kindly aware of this.

Dt Secy.
Chief Secy.) 1/12/49
Asst Secy. Finance

3) The leave cannot be given now and would not have been recommended if it had been applied for earlier, as many important items of work need his attention, like questions re: Integration, i.e. 7. new agreement E.C.O's Report. The Six month's leave may be refused and he may be permitted to avail himself of this refused leave of Six months commencing from the day he hands over charge on retirement.

6 A – No; if the leave has been asked for and refused in the interests of Public Service it does not lapse, whether retirement commences naturally or is put off by an extension granted.

7 B – The extension merely postpones the dates of the commencement and end of the leave asked for, refused and therefore at the credit of the officer prior to the date of natural retirement.
